Swiss Diamond 10-Piece Set Receives Cooking Club of America Seal of Approval

Parsippany, NJ – Swiss Diamond’s 10-piece set featuring the company’s most popular shapes and sizes has received the Cooking Club of America Seal of Approval.

The Seal is awarded to products after receiving favorable ratings from members testing and evaluation. The Cooking Club of America is a national membership based organization designed exclusively for active cooks.

Swiss Diamond heavy-gauge cast aluminum cookware is manufactured in Switzerland to the highest quality standards and features a proprietary non-stick technology that incorporates real diamond crystals to produce a cooking surface that outlasts and outperforms all other non-stick cookware.

Swiss Diamond’s Nano-Composite technology utilizes up to 200,000 diamond crystals in each pan to form an indestructible cooking surface that is guaranteed never to crack, blister or peel. All cookware pieces are dishwasher and metal utensil safe and can withstand oven temperatures up to 500 degrees Fahrenheit. All Swiss Diamond cookware comes with a Lifetime Warranty.

Swiss Diamond’s 10-piece set is currently available and has a suggested retail price of $692.00.
